

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Top Ranking for Tying the Knot in Style

Alexandria, Virginia-March 16, 2011- Every bride knows that aside from the dress, cake, and flowers, figuring out how your going to get to your wedding location is probably top on your list. You can't very well walk to the wedding. You'll want the best transportation that fits into your wedding budget.

“QUOTE” How/what do you want a wedding experience to be?

As a premier company in transportation solutions in the Washington DC, Virginia, and Maryland areas, Fleet Transportation makes it easy to cross one thing off your list. They work with wedding and event planners from all over to make sure any wedding they provide service to is held in the highest regard.

You're treated with class and respect every step of the way. This level of commitment has snagged them a top four ranking from The Knot, a full service wedding website known for being a brides best friend.

Fleet Transportation has demonstrated they are the best choice for tailored service, competitive pricing, and prompt scheduling. Stacey S. Glazier, owner of Fleet Transportation, knows how important it is to take care of their customers' needs.

“QUOTE” Why is it important to be on time? What about the experience of booking with Fleet Trans?

The added bonus? Fleet Transportation's high regard for the environment. As they commit to the investment of their future and industry evolution, they keep a strong commitment to the environment, prompting them to seek environmental sustainability initiatives through phased implementation in a partnership with Green Ride Global.

The last thing you want to worry about is transportation, because there are so many other things that need your attention. Booking with Fleet Transportation will be the easiest thing to do next to saying I Do.
